

FLORIDA CONSTRUCTION NEWS

ZOM Takes 22 Awards at Florida's 2016 BEST Awards

By Heather Kirk - November 25, 2016

Luxury multifamily real estate developer, ZOM Development, was recently recognized with 22 awards in the Builders Association of South Florida (BASF) Florida's BEST Awards.

A media release announcing the awards, which recognizes homebuilders, developers, general contractors, real estate sales teams, architects and industry professionals, quotes ZOM president and chief development officer Greg West as saying: "We could not be more excited to have four of our recent projects recognized with such prestigious awards. I am very proud of our talented development team, this would not be possible without their skills and dedication."

Among the projects ZOM was recognized for are its Monarc at Met 3, which placed in eight categories, winning in Platinum for Architecture, Pool and Builders Overall Product. The company's Baldwin Harbor development placed in six categories, winning in Platinum for Pool and Land Planning and its Bel Air at Doral placed in four categories, winning in Platinum for Landscape Architecture.

The release quotes BASF president Ben Solomon as saying, "The Builders Association of South Florida (BASF) would like to congratulate ZOM on winning the most Florida's BEST Awards of any other developer this year. We are proud to recognize ZOM as an industry leader in the multifamily market and spotlight their amazing new projects throughout Florida."

Other awards were presented to Luxcom Builders for its Altos Del Mar project which received Best of Show. Special Judges Awards were presented to Affiniti Architects, Prime Group, Witkins Hults Design Group, Century Homebuilders Group and ZOM.

###