

ZOM Named Green Builder of the Year by the Florida Green Building Coalition

ZOM Florida, Inc. was selected as Green Builder of the Year for most homes certified in the multifamily category for 2016

Orlando, FL (November 1, 2016) – ZOM Florida, Inc., a leading luxury multifamily real estate developer, received a 2016 Green Achievement Award from the Florida Green Building Coalition (FGBC), and was named “Green Builder of the Year” for the most homes certified in the multifamily category. The awards recognition was part of the FGBC’s GreenTrends conference held in Fort Lauderdale, an annual two-day conference that brings together green building industry leaders throughout the state to shape policies and practices for the industry.

“Sustainable design is something we take very seriously at ZOM,” said Greg West, ZOM’s Chief Development Officer. “Evaluating the environmental impact and efficiency of our buildings is a priority in design. We are honored to be recognized for our efforts.”

The Florida Green Building Coalition (FGBC) and its members have made a significant impact on Florida's growth in sustainable building projects. This year, FGBC reached a new milestone with over 13,000 certified "Florida Green" homes. Adding in the 25 million square feet of commercial and high-rise residential, 62 land developments, and 86 local governments participating in FGBC certification programs, FGBC is the leading certifier of green projects in Florida.
