

ZOM Takes 22 Awards at Florida's 2016 BEST Awards

The Builder's Association of South Florida (BASF) presented ZOM with 22 of the highly coveted Florida's BEST Awards for its Development Achievements in the Multifamily Industry

Orlando, FL (November 16, 2016) – ZOM, a leading luxury multifamily real estate developer, was recently honored with 22 Florida's BEST Awards at the Builder's Association of South Florida signature event, which celebrates the best homebuilders, developers, general contractors, architects, real estate sales team and industry professionals.

"We could not be more excited to have four of our recent projects recognized with such prestigious awards," said Greg West, ZOM's President and Chief Development Officer. "I am very proud of our talented development team, this would not be possible without their skills and dedication."

Specialty judges evaluated the competition for various categories and price points. Awards were presented for excellence in the real estate community and the dynamic individuals and organizations that participate in it, including Builder of the Year and Philanthropy Award of the Year.

The BEST awards recognized the top new multifamily development projects in South Florida. ZOM's Monarc at Met 3 placed in 8 categories, taking Platinum for Architecture, Pool and Builders Overall Product. Baldwin Harbor placed in 6 categories, taking Platinum for Pool and Land Planning. Bel Air at Doral placed in 4 categories, taking Platinum for Landscape Architecture and Moda at North Bay Village placed in 4 categories.

"The Builders Association of South Florida (BASF) would like to congratulate ZOM on winning the most Florida's BEST Awards of any other developer this year," said Ben Solomon, BASF's President. "We are proud to recognize ZOM as an industry leader in the multifamily market and spotlight their amazing new projects throughout Florida."
